Farmers lay siege to KRS

Entry to tourists only after 5 pm

With farmers threatening to lay siege to the KRS Dam and opening up the sluice gates themselves, the Mandya Police provided tight security around the Dam. Due to the protest of farmers, the world famous Brindavan Gardens was to open for tourists today only after 5 pm as a precautionary measure, according to the Police.

Even as the farmers were getting prepared to enter inside the Dam, the Police were bracing themselves for taking the agitating farmers into preventive custody.

Mandya / Srirangapatna, June 28 (Nagaiah / Vinay Karekura)- With the indefinite stir launched by the farmers at Mandya seeking immediate release of water to KRS and Hemavathi Canals entering the eighth day and the deadline set to the Government for releasing water also having ended today at 11 am, hundreds of farmers thronged the KRS Dam in Srirangapatna taluk to lay siege to the Dam this afternoon.

The farmers, led by KRRS leader Darshan Puttannaiah and armed with tools required to open up sluice gates, left Mandya after the 11 am deadline ended with no sign of the Government meeting their demand of releasing water to Canals and reached KRS, passing through Pandavapura town and other villages in the afternoon.

Hearthless Homes

After God-knows-for-how-long, counted in centuries, including the periods mentioned in the land's epics, sympathising with the home-maker tied to her dawn-to-dusk daily chores of keeping the family hearty and healthy, particularly cooking by burning smoke-spewing firewood and drawing water from the well, her lot has lately witnessed a mountain of relief, thanks to supply of smoke-free cooking fuel and piped water in her home. The rising cost of feeding the family with variety of dishes and keeping the proverbial wolf out of the door are no longer the exclusive bother of the urban-based chief wage-earner. The home-maker, willy-nilly, has turned from home-bound member of the family into a proactive life-partner in the widest sense of the term, raising the family's economic strength in the process, only the gender-difference remaining unchanged. The role of common-place gadgets to cook, communicate and commute, in facilitating the home-maker to expedite all her tasks with near-zero discomfort, thanks to the known and unknown inventors, cannot be expressed in words nor over-exaggerated.

On not-too-often-happening occasions when the mercurial lady, toiling 365 days a year is incapacitated, one's mind may get enlivened by the narratives in the epic Mahabharata mentioning Draupadi's akshayapatra that kept her five husbands well-fed and the entourage of the ill-tempered Durvasa served with sumptuous food. But, dreams rarely become real-life experiences.

Advances in the world of electronics, digital technology and computer software have metamorphosed life of virtually all sections of the populations world over to an amazing extent and the momentum has just turned unstoppable. The speed and efficiency of food reaching the homes of consumers are witnessing unprecedented levels, thanks to the ubiquitous mobile telephone in its smart avatar. The rapidly expanding network connecting eateries with their patrons, as its emergence in Mysuru is there for all to experience nowadays, reportedly has virtually conquered the capital of Karnataka with dishes of one's choice reaching the doorstep within minutes. Bengaluru reportedly accounts for more than one-fifth of all calls made across the country.

The three currently dominating players of the aforementioned network, given the efficiency and diligence of their service, the time-honoured place for the home's hearth is likely to vanish sooner than later. We are truly in an emerging world that armed with cash and cellphone, all you need to do for accessing food of your taste is dial for dinner.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Though terribly important, basic needs are not what we live for. They don't make our life worth living. But anything really worth pursuing depends on the satisfaction of basic needs. If we are continuously thirsty, cold, hungry, ill or homeless, we will be incapable of even framing a conception of worthwhile life, let alone pursue it. Imagine the plight of those who queue up for long hours to get a bucket of water or a place to bathe, dress or defecate. People suffer if basic needs are met inadequately or with delay. They are then denied a minimally decent life. — Rajeev Bhargava in The Hindu.

'Death Awareness Cafe'

Thailand : A cafe in Thailand is using a macabre gimmick to draw in customers by closing them in coffins after finishing coffee.

The Death Awareness Cafe in Bangkok features mortuary-inspired decor and coffins placed for customers to spend time closed inside after their purchased beverages.

Veeranut Rojanaprapa, the cafe's owner, said the purpose of the cafe is to inspire customers to reflect on their lives. He said the idea was inspired by Buddhist philosophy and is aimed at encouraging people not to be driven by greed.

"Our main goal is for the visitor to experience the death awareness," he said. "When the lid of the coffin closes, their basic instincts will come up and they will realize that eventually they cannot take anything with them."

Flowers shaped like Hummingbirds

Port Darwin: A legume belonging to Crotalaria cunninghamii, native to northern Australia, is known as the "green bird flower" for a very good reason – its green flowers look like tiny hummingbirds with their sharp beak attached to the plant's stem.

A photo of two Crotalaria cunninghamii flowers recently went viral leaving many users scratching their heads and asking whether their uncanny resemblance to hummingbirds was an adaptive evolutionary development or a simple illusion. Apparently, the latter would be the most likely answer. There are no hummingbirds in northern Australia, and apart from humans, it is unlikely that any creature would mistake these flowers for real hummingbirds, so the shape does not result in any kind of benefit to the plant. Plus, the flowers only resemble hummingbirds when viewed from a certain side-angle. It's purely a case of simulacrum, seeing shapes and forms that look like something that they're clearly not.

HEALTH CAPSULE by Bron Smith

Is it possible to get Malaria in the United States?

It is possible to get Malaria in the US but very unlikely. We have 2 mosquito species in the US that carry the Malaria parasite, but the vast majority of Malaria cases in the US were contracted in areas outside of the US where the disease is more common.

Clear clogged inlets to side drains

Sir,

This is the fate of most inlets that diverts rain water to side drains on city roads. The street swept waste is conveniently pushed into these channels laid under footpaths. Result: Inlet is clogged, rain water runs down the road and inundates a low lying area and creates tragedies.

The Umar Khayyam Road, Tilaknagar, Mandi Mohalla, was selected to be converted as a model road about six years ago and footpaths were laid, ornamental street lights pillars were erected since the road connected with the Jumboo Savari route on New Sayyaji Rao Road.

Will the authorities concerned attend to this perennial problem, clear the clogged inlets and most importantly cart the waste immediately lest it gets back and clogs again? It is also necessary to educate the MCC Pourakarmikas to perform their duties and responsibilities with honesty and sincerity.

Vishnu Memorial to be built under Police protection

High Court clears legal hurdles; Works on the much-delayed Memorial to begin soon

Mysuru, June 28 (RK&BCT)- The memorial for late actor "Sahasa Simha" Dr. Vishnuvardhan in Mysuru will be built under Police protection as several unauthorised parties have approached the Courts claiming the proposed land for the memorial at Udbur village as theirs. Following this, the Mysuru District Administration has decided to begin the works under Police protection to ward off any threats.

Speaking to Star of Mysore this morning, Mysuru Tahsildar T. Ramesh Babu said that the government will go ahead with the memorial in coordination with Dr. Vishnuvardhan Pratishtana Trust, the Chairman of which is Karnataka Chief Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy and where Dr. Vishnuvardhan's wife Bharathi Vishnuvardhan is a Trustee.

Civil injunction vacated

The Tahsildar said that the Karnataka High Court had vacated a civil injunction issued by a Mysuru Court. The civil injunction was related to ownership of the six-acre, five guntas of Government land on Survey Number 8 near Udbur Gate on Manandavadi Road. Five acres of the land was sanctioned to the Memorial.

The land is located at Halalu village, Kasaba Hobli and after the Mysuru District Administration allotted the land for the memorial and handed it to the Department of Information and Public Relations, Mahadevamma and Sannappa from the village claimed ownership over the land.

They approached the Second Judicial Magistrate First Class (JMFC) Court in Mysuru and sought a stay to the Vishnuvardhan Memorial. The Court issued a civil injunction in favour of Mahadevamma and Sannappa.

Petition in higher Courts

Meanwhile, Bharathi Vishnuvardhan and fans laid the foundation stone for the Memorial on 6.12.2016, sunk two borewells and laid the foundation for a compound wall too. Works were, however, stopped following the civil injunction.

Later, Tahsildar Ramesh Babu approached the Fourth JMFC Court to vacate the injunction but the Court upheld the injunction order issued by Second JMFC Court and directed both parties to maintain status quo (which prevented further construction).

Ramesh Babu then moved the High Court (Writ Petition 20286/2017) last February. Hearing the case, the High Court vacated the injunction as the opposite parties were absent during the hearing and gave permission to build the Memorial in the originally planned design.

Agricultural land

The land in question comes under 80 acres of government land in Survey Number 8 of Halalu Village. In 1974, the Karnataka Government had granted 74 acres of land to Mahadevamma, Sannappa and 25 others for agricultural purposes. However, the remaining 6-acre-5-guntas land was allegedly occupied and the parties continued agriculture.

The land tussle began when the State Government allocated five acres of land to Vishnu Memorial and Mahadevamma and Sannappa moved the Courts claiming ownership. "The land belongs to the Government and the allotment was within the legal framework. As per the Karnataka Land Revenue Act 1964, Column 94 (4), Government land within 10 kilometres of radius from the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) limits cannot be handed over to private parties or private Trusts," said Ramesh Babu.

Land belongs to the government

"This land is beyond 8 kilometres from the MCC boundaries and certain private parties had encroached upon the land. Earlier too, the claims of private parties over ownership were rejected by the Bagar Hukum Regularisation Committee. Now the High Court has upheld that it is Government land," he said and added that as all hurdles have been removed, work on the memorial will start soon.

Reacting on the developments, Vishnuvardhan's son-in-law and actor Anirudh told SOM that 90 percent of the architectural plan for the Memorial has been completed and the architects were preparing the rest of the plan. "We are awaiting a meeting with the Principal Secretary of Information Department Pankaj Kumar Pandey to finalise the design," he said.

The Government has already sanctioned Rs. 11 crore for the Memorial and of the five acres of land, two acres will be for the Samadhi and the rest of the place will be utilised for a 'Cinema and Nataka Mantapa' where upcoming artistes will be trained, he added.

Stone pillar in front of Dasoha Bhavan atop Chamundi Hill damaged

Mysuru, June 28 (SPN&NNN)- A stone pillar in the decorated mantap in the garden in front of the Dasoha Bhavan atop Chamundi Hill is broken and this issue was brought to the notice of the officials concerned. Instead of replacing it, it has been patched up, said a resident of the Hill, expressing his anger.

Since the last 15 days, preparations have begun for Ashada Shukravara (Friday) and for this the Deputy Commissioner, Zilla Panchayat CEO, Police Commissioner and other officials are regularly visiting the Hill.

However, it is sad that none of their attention is drawn towards this pillar which is broken, he said.

The Ashada Shukravara will begin from next month and lakhs of devotees from other parts of the country will also descend on the Hill.

During this time, if the devotees who are strangers to the place sit in the mantap, imagine their plight. If something untoward happens will the officials concerned be held responsible for this, he asked and added that even if a small incident occurs in the Chamundi Hill it will become national and international news.

Hence, he urged the District Administration to take immediate steps to set right the pillar.

Mysuru, June 28- Theatre artiste K.R. Sumathi has been chosen for the 'CGK Ranga Puraskar-2018' (Theatre Award) instituted by city-based theatre group Nele Hinnele. The award carries a cash prize of Rs. 10,000.

New Motor Bill: 10K fine for drunken driving, 5K for without licence

New Delhi, June 28- The Union Cabinet on June 24 approved changes to the Motor Vehicles (Amendment) Bill. Following this amendment, if you break traffic rules, do not give way to ambulance, let a juvenile ride your vehicle or violate any other rules under the Motor Vehicles Act, watch out.

This bill which was pending for approval in the Rajya Sabha lapsed when the term of the 16th Lok Sabha ended. Now approved, it aims to tackle pertinent road safety issues. Apart from proposing heavy penalties for violations, it aims to strengthen public transportation and curb corruption. The proposal has been made as per the recommendations of Transport Ministers from over 18 States and was vetted by the Standing Committee of the Parliament.

Following the Centre's move, the State Government has issued a Gazette Notification and has implemented certain fines for offences (see table). Here are some highlights from the Motor Vehicles (Amendment) Bill:

• The Amended Bill proposes hefty penalties for violation of traffic norms. It has proposed Rs. 10,000 fine if you fail to give way to emergency vehicles (ambulance).

• Driving despite being disqualified? This will invite a fine of Rs. 10,000.

• Violated traffic rules? Rs. 100 won't suffice. The revised fine is Rs. 500. Disobedience of the orders of authorities will attract a minimum penalty of Rs. 2,000.

• Driving without your licence will cost you a fine of Rs. 5,000. Over-speeding will attract penalties between Rs. 1,000-2,000. Driving without insurance can invite a fine of Rs. 2,000.

• If you drive without a helmet, you have to shell out a fine of Rs. 1,000, and your licence will be suspended for three months. Not wearing a seat belt? Pay Rs. 1,000 as fine.

• Letting a juvenile drive your vehicle? You, the guardian/ owner, will be deemed guilty in case of road offence by them. You will be fined Rs. 25,000 with imprisonment of three years and cancellation of the vehicle's registration.

• Ride-hailing aggregators can be fined up to Rs. 1 lakh for violating driving licensing conditions and Rs. 20,000 for overloading of vehicles.

• Driving dangerously? The fine has been revised from Rs. 1,000 to Rs. 5,000. Drunken driving? You will attract a fine of Rs. 10,000. This is five times the previous fine.

• Speeding or racing? Pay ten times the previous fine at Rs. 5,000.

• Enforcing authorities committing any of these offences will be fined double on their offence.

In case an accident causes death, the bill caps the maximum liability of the third party at Rs. 10 lakh and Rs. 5 lakh in an accident causing serious injury.

The new law could also help simplify the registration process for new vehicles by making Aadhaar mandatory for obtaining a Driving Licence (DL) and vehicle registration. The bill has proposed an increase in the validity of DLs. It also aims to allow the Centre to recall defective vehicles causing harm to the environment and people.

'Amit Shah and the March of BJP'

Author presents book to Dr. S.L. Bhyrappa in city

By Prof. G. L. Shekar

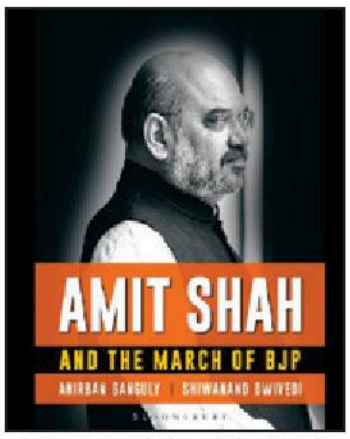
In Mysuru this morning, was honoured to call on the doyen of Kannada literature, philosopher, novelist and legendary public intellectual, Dr. S.L. Bhyrappa. Was delighted to present him my book 'Amit Shah and the March of BJP' and have a discussion on it," tweeted Dr. Anirban Ganguly on Sunday last.

When I met Dr. Bhyrappa the next day, he was seriously reading the book. As usual he had marked certain pages and had read almost 70 per cent of the book. "The book is quite interesting," he said.

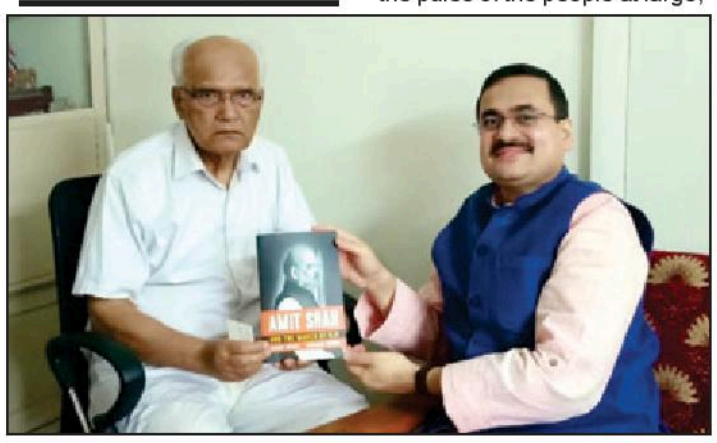
Dr. Ganguly, who was in Bengaluru on some work, travelled all the way to Mysuru to pay respects to Dr. Bhyrappa and to personally present the trending book on Sunday. Ganguly has co-authored the book with Shiwanand Dwivedi. Ganguly gave me more input about the book post meeting with Bhyrappa.

'Amit Shah and the March of BJP' is a book that according to Ganguly narrates the little known story of Amit Shah's political life, struggles, rise and triumph. For a leader who is often referred to as the Chanakya of Indian politics, who has dominated India's fast-paced and complex political stage since 2014, has altered its electoral map by leading the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) to successive historic victories post the May 2014 general elections, there is very little that is recorded or narrated. It's no surprise that the curiosity he evokes is ever on the rise, more so after the massive victory of BJP in recent Lok Sabha elections. Amit Shah comes forth as the principal trouble-shooter of Prime Minister Narendra Modi. Ganguly, however, quickly adds "electoral politics is only one dimension of his (Amit Shah's) personality, and our book certainly provides insight into a number of unknown dimension of his life."

Most of what is written till now about Amit Shah is based on conjectures, hearsay, assumptions and biases, Ganguly says. The real Amit Shah — once the booth-worker and now National President of the largest political party in the world, the master strategist who has pushed the BJP to an organisational pinnacle and yet talks of scaling peaks, a man who is unhesitant in his stand on Nationalism and on anything which concerns India's national interest — has remained in the shadows, self-effaced, away from the limelight.



Title: Amit Shah and the March of BJP
Authors: Anirban Ganguly and Shiwanand Dwivedi
Pages: 296
Price: Rs. 399
Publisher: Bloomsbury



The author, Anirban Ganguly, presenting a copy of the book to Novelist Dr. S.L. Bhyrappa at his residence in Kuvempunagar.

The story of how he expanded the BJP into a pan-India party and the convergence of organisational science and ideology that has made the BJP a unique and formidable political entity is a story that needs to be told. The book narrates the personal and political journey of Amit Shah, captures the ideological world that shaped him and gives an account of the party that he is leading and shaping today. It is for the first time, Ganguly said, his story is being told — an authentic, no-holds-barred portrayal of Amit Shah.

In the foreword, Rajat Sharma, Editor-in-Chief and Chairman, India TV, says "Initially, the Delhi-based Lutyens' caucus saw Amit Shah as merely Narendra Modi's Man Friday. They saw Shah as the key person who can lead them to Modi. They never really tried to show beyond this. Only when he performed the historic electoral feat of winning 73 seats for BJP from Uttar Pradesh (2014) did they want to know him better… once Shah became the National President of the BJP, everybody wanted to connect with him."

The authors have discerned and argued that with his decades-long grassroots experience in organisation work for the party in Gujarat, wide administrative experience in the State, sharp electoral-strategic sense, minute understanding and grasp of policies and policy making and its impact on mood of the people, with his feel of the pulse of the people at large, Amit Shah has truly succeeded in turning the party into a bridge and an organism with a sense of social responsibility. That in itself has been one of his most distinct successes.

Ganguly, Director of the BJP's think-tank, Dr. Syama Prasad Mookerjee Research Foundation, enjoys impressive access to Amit Shah, a master strategist who is now the Union Home Minister.

A reviewer says: To the political worker, the observer and to anyone even remotely interested in Indian politics, irrespective of their profession or political leaning, more so since unfolding of Indian politics in the summer of 2014, this is a captivating exploration of the political life and journey of one of its central characters.

The book, published in India by Bloomsbury, has 14 chapters. The 296-page book priced at Rs. 399, starts from the chapter titled 'From the Lamp to the Lotus' and ends with the chapter '2019 and Challenges.'

MP Pratap Simha seeks works of NH-275 on top priority

Mandya MP Sumalatha meets Union Ministers Piyush Goyal and Suresh Angadi

New Delhi, June 28- Mysuru-Kodagu Member of Parliament Pratap Simha has requested Union Ministry of Road Transport and Highways to treat the works on National Highway 275 (Mysuru-Madikeri Economic Corridor Expressway Project along Mysuru-Madikeri NH-275) linking Mysuru and Madikeri on priority and expedite the works.

Meeting Union Minister Road Transport and Highways and Shipping, Ministry of Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises Nitin Gadkari along with Dakshina Kannada MP Nalin Kumar Kateel in New Delhi yesterday, Simha told Gadkari that the NH 275 works have been taken up by National Highways Authority of India (NHAI), wherein the alignment has been finalised and submitted to NHAI.

The MP said that the land acquisition process is already on and a Special Land Acquisition Office has been set up at Chamarajapuram in Mysuru. The 115 km-long Expressway costs Rs.6,000 crore and is a fully Centrally-funded Project including land acquisition.

The 14-metre wide Expressway will connect Madikeri with Bengaluru bypassing Suntikoppa, Kushalnagar, Bylakuppe, Koppa, Kampalapura, Periyapatna, Kallbetta, Gonikoppal Deviation Road, Hunsur and Mysuru. The Expressway will touch the Mysuru-Bengaluru Highway at Paschimavahini near Srirangapatna.

Pratap Simha told Gadkari that the Expressway works have been delayed due to election process since the last three months. He said that the project has not been covered in top priority list where traffic density varies from 10,944 passenger car units (Madikeri) to 41,896 passenger car units (Mysuru).

The MP requested Gadkari to instruct the NHAI authorities to list this project in High Priority-I list in order to avoid decongestion of traffic in Mysuru city and tourist place Madikeri and also to ensure the road safety of public.

Meanwhile, Mandya MP Sumalatha Ambarish met Union Minister for Railways and Commerce Piyush Goyal and Minister of State for Railways Suresh Angadi seeking assistance to various Railway projects in Mandya.

MPs meet UGC Chairman

A delegation of MPs from Karnataka led by Union Minister of State for Railways Suresh Angadi and comprising Pratap Simha, Nalin Kumar Kateel, P.C. Gaddigoudar, Karadi Sanganna and Bhagwanth Khuba met UGC Chairman D.P. Singh (second from right) and other officials in Delhi on Wednesday and apprised them about the uncertain future of lakhs of KSOU students after the UGC de-recognised KSOU courses from 2013-14. The MPs sought the UGC to grant recognition to degrees awarded by KSOU from 2013-14 till 2018 and thus render justice them.

An unnoticed children's statue at Jaganmohan Palace

Mysuru, June 28 (OSR)- Hundreds of thousands of visitors and tourists throng the 158-year-old Jaganmohan Palace in city every day. But either in the rush or due to lack of knowledge, hardly anyone gives a second look at the fountain with statues of two children, a boy and a girl, very European-looking.

However, during one of his frequent visits to Jaganmohan Palace auditorium, this beautiful statue of the children caught the eyes of Star of Mysore Photographer, when he had just finished taking the photograph of the silhouetted Palace with the background of the setting sun in the evening sky.

His attention suddenly turned to the statue of the children and as he clicked, the innocent faces of the children stood out.

What is the history behind this statue? Star of Mysore dwelled a little deeply only to find that there is hardly any information on how and why the statue, which also used to have a fountain, was installed.

Sources in the Jaganmohan Palace said that the statue could have been installed during the time of Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar. It is made of metal with a cement pedestal. The boy is holding the umbrella over the head of both him and the girl, while the girl is holding a folded umbrella behind her.

It is said that the there was a fountain and the water sprang from the tip of the umbrella in a fountain form and flow back into the pond. "Those days there was no motor to pump the water. Since the Palace had connection for water supply, the water flowed throughout the day through the centrifugal force and as a result the fountain was always working. There was a valve to stop the water flowing. The whole place was cordoned off earlier by a fence. But now it is removed and one can have a close look at the figurines," said the source.

However, the statue is not in a good condition as cracks have developed. Just like Jayachamarajendra Art Gallery is being restored by HH Srikantanadatta Narasimharaja Wadiyar Foundation, it is hoped that this statue and the fountain will also get a facelift and be restored to its past glory.

Mysuru, June 28 (RK&BCT)- The Mysuru Chapter of Indian National Trust for Art and Cultural Heritage (INTACH) was inaugurated this morning by scion of erstwhile Mysore royal family Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar.

INTACH was founded in 1984 in New Delhi with the vision to spearhead heritage awareness and conservation in India. Today INTACH is recognised as one of the world's largest heritage organisations, with over 190 Chapters across the country. INTACH has pioneered the conservation and preservation of not just natural and built heritage but intangible heritage as well.

Inaugurating the Mysuru Chapter at an event held at Hotel Royal Inn on KRS Road this morning, Yaduveer said that he was opposed to the proposal of converting the campus of Nanjaraja Bahadur Choultry into a multi-level parking lot.

Yaduveer was referring to a report published in Star of Mysore yesterday where Nanjaraja Bahadur Choultry Management Committee President C. Krishnappa had suggested converting the spacious campus of Nanjaraja Bahadur Choultry on Vinoba Road into a multi-level parking facility so that it can ease parking problem on D. Devaraja Urs Road and surrounding roads.

"If all heritage campuses are converted into parking lots, we will ultimately lose important structures built by erstwhile rulers and chieftains. I was shocked by the proposal and it is an unfortunate development. Heritage conservation will be compromised if we convert the Choultry into a parking lot and the future generations will lose sight and importance of the heritage structure," he said.

"Mysuru is called the Heritage City as there are many heritage structures in the heart of the city like the Mysore Palace, Devaraja Market, Lansdowne Building, Nanjaraja Bahadur Choultry and a couple of buildings around the Palace. If we commercialise these structures, we will lose the Heritage City Tag and this is a sad development," Yaduveer said.

He appreciated the INTACH Mysuru chapter and appealed to them to save the heritage structures for future generations.

Speaking as the chief guest, Mysuru Deputy Commissioner Abhiram G. Sankar said that intangible and natural heritage of Mysuru city must be protected at any cost. INTACH must play direct and indirect role to save the cultural and heritage aspects of Mysuru, he opined. Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) Commissioner Shilpa Nag said that the MCC is planning to install four welcome arches at the entrances to Mysuru City. She requested the cooperation of INTACH members in conservation.

Major General (Retd) L.K. Gupta, Chairman, INTACH, New Delhi, S. Suresh, Convenor, INTACH Chennai Chapter were present.

She had called on the Governor on June 26 to invite him to inaugurate the birth centenary celebrations on July 18 and he gave his consent, Pramoda Devi added.

Former West Bengal Governor Gopalkrishna Gandhi will deliver the keynote address. Symphony Orchestra of India (SOI) from the National Centre of Performing Arts (NCPA), Mumbai, will perform the same evening at the Mysore Palace for the first time in the city.

Pramoda Devi Wadiyar greeting Governor Vajubhai R. Vala at Raj Bhavan in Bengaluru on June 26 after inviting him for the celebrations.

Apart from this, a CD of the 94 musical compositions of Sri JCW being broadcast by AIR (All India Radio) will also be released on the occasion, she said.

Awards will be presented to 10 achievers in various fields in which Sri JCW was interested and associated with like in Philosophy, Sanskrit, Kannada, Wildlife, Agriculture (farmer), Karnatak Music, performing arts, sports, cinema and outstanding contribution to society, she said.

The Durbar Hall in the Mysore Palace where the celebrations will be held can accommodate about 800 people and the entry will be only by invitation. However, the public can view the function in front of the Durbar Hall for which entry is free, she said.

Asked whether any books will be released, Pramoda Wadiyar said that since there will be celebrations every three months there are plans to release the works of Sri JCW in Kannada.

On whether Madhuvana, the resting place of the royal family members on Nanjangud Road will be converted into a tourist spot, she said that it was nothing new that the cemetery was being cleaned. This time, however, the work is being taken up by SDNR Wadiyar Foundation and hence a decision on whether it will be converted into a tourist spot will be taken up some time in the future, she added.

Mysore Palace Secretary M. Lakshminarayan and Foundation Secretary Reginald Wesley were also present at the press meet.

Girl's birth date changed to marry her off; three arrested

Chamarajanagar, June 28 (SS&BCT)- A birth certificate or an SSLC marks card are valid documents to determine the age of a child or a person. Birth registration has the potential to play a crucial role in reducing child marriage. But here is a case where the SSLC marks card was tampered with to marry off a minor girl.

The shocking incident occurred in Chamarajanagar at Uppara Layout on Thursday where the birth date of the girl in her SSLC marks card was changed. A case has been booked against three persons including the bridegroom who despite knowing that the girl is underage had agreed for the marriage. A resident of Uppara Layout wanted to marry off his daughter to a youth of the same layout and had made all arrangements for the wedding at a local marriage hall.

The incident, however, was reported to Child Helpline by an anonymous caller at 10.30 am and the caller told the officials that a minor girl is being married off. Acting swiftly, Child Helpline officers, Police and officials from the Department of Women and Child Welfare rushed to the marriage hall. But by the time they reached the marriage hall, the bridegroom had tied the traditional mangalsutra to the girl and some of the rituals were completed.

Seeing the official team, the parents of the bride and bridegroom and relatives picked up a fight with the officials and claimed that the girl is of legal marriageable age of 18. Chaos prevailed at the marriage hall and the Police had to intervene. Later, the girl was handed over to Child Helpline team and the Department officials.

The hapless girl was taken to Balamandira and when the officials checked her SSLC marks card, it was discovered that the girl was born in 2003 and she had just completed 16 years and three months. Her SSLC marks card was tampered to change the birth date to 2001. As per school records too, she was born in 2003.

The Police have arrested bridegroom Mahesh, his father Chinnaswamy and the girl's uncle. Later they were released on bail.

HDK who was staying in Ujalamba village in Bidar district yesterday returned to Bengaluru this morning and later chaired the Cabinet Committee meeting. He will then leave for America at night along with former PM and JD(S) Supremo H.D. Deve Gowda.

Sources said that Kumaraswamy will be participating in a programme organised by Adichunchanagiri Mutt to lay the foundation stone for the construction of a Kalabhyraveshwara Temple to be taken up by it in New Jersey on June 30.

The Police had deployed a large number of Police personnel at the East, West and Central entry gates of the Dam and had installed barricades in the vicinity of the Dam's main entrance, in order to prevent the agitating farmers from entering the Dam. The Police had also got KSRTC buses stationed near the main entrance of the Dam for taking the farmers into preventive custody.

Mandya SP Shivaprakash Devaraj said that 6 Dy.SPs, 10 CPIs, 12 PSIs, 4 DAR and 2 KSRP battalions and 150 local Police personnel have been deployed around the Dam for preventing any untoward incidents.

Free Outgoing: An English play by Kalasuruchi

Theatre in its myriad forms has been considered as a true mirror to the society. How do middle class moralities co-exist with the freedom enabled by modern gadgets? How does "virality" of news — considered good in some quarters spoil the domestic harmony?

Contemporary issues like these are handled deftly by Chennai-based Anupama Chandrashekhar in her English play "Free Outgoing."

Friction between teenage children and parents seems to have accentuated in recent times with the availability of technology and ubiquitous availability of modern gadgets. A feeling of 'I am/should be the centre of the world' displayed by young adults is acknowledged as a human phenomenon across centuries and is considered part of the growing up process.

But when technology makes fast-paced strides and aids this 'exhibitionism' in vulgar ways, a tradition-bound society is shocked and families are unable to cope up with the resulting chaos and tensions are bound to raise.

In such a situation, how should media behave? Should they show restraint and aid in dousing the fire or should they err on the side of publicity and openness? Where are the moral lines drawn? Issues such as these are very contemporary and are addressed deftly by the playwright.

In order to encourage production of English plays, Kalasuruchi has been aiming to produce at least one english play in a year. "Free Outgoing"* is being staged by Kalasuruchi at Suruchi Rangamane, Kuvempunagar, on June 29 and 30 (Saturday and Sunday) at 7 pm. Direction is by Tejaswini Jois, who has been very active as an actor in major productions and has directed several plays.

Singapore Junior Golf Championship

Mysuru Golfer strikes Gold

Aryan Roopa Anand of Mysuru receiving the Golf Cup from a dignitary.

Mysuru, June 28 (BCT)- Aryan Roopa Anand from Mysuru, one of the promising young golfers in the country, has emerged as overall boys champion and won gold medal in the three-day Singapore Junior Golf Championship.

The championship concluded yesterday at the island's Keppel Club course. The 17-year-old Aryan was ahead of Singapore's Sean Lee and Poon Jia Hao of Malaysia. Aryan's three-day total of 222 (74, 70, 78) was two shots better than the local challenger and seven ahead of Malaysia's Poon.

Remarkably Aryan won gold in Singapore Junior Golf after 19 years. Aryan's elated mother Roopa Anand told Star of Mysore that after 19 years an Indian has won the Singapore Juniors Golf Tournament. The last winners of Singapore Juniors were Gurbaz Mann and Ashok Kumar in 2000.

Aryan emerged as overall champion, second day gross winner and team winner. In all, 30 players tried their luck in Aryan's category. Aryan had a total of eight birdies in his three rounds. On the second day his card of 70 also fetched the day's best gross award in boy's 15-17 category.

On the final day, Aryan had a blemish-free round with 14 pars in a row but a late stumble with two bogeys and two doubles dented his card somewhat. In the final analysis, it was still good enough for him to land the gold medal ahead of Sean Lee, who was two shots behind.

The Indian Golf Union-fielded team had further success as Aryan and Arjun Bhati teamed up to win the boy's team event as India B, totalling 307 were finally well ahead of the Malaysian Golf Association (Marcus Lim/ Nor Harith Nor Hadi, 311) and the National Golf Association of the Philippines (Masachi Otake/ John Edward Dy, 312) teams.

Born on Dec.21, 2001, Aryan started playing golf at the age of 8 and is currently trained under Tarun Sardesai at the Tarun Sardesai Golf Academy in Kolar.

Reacting on Aryan's achievement on Instagram, coach Tarun Sardesai said, "The team has worked hard with Aryan over the past few years when the top spot has eluded him many times on the National Junior Circuit. Great for his first win to be an international one."

Aryan is the son of Roopa and Anand, residents of Dattagalli.

ICC World Cup 2019

Kohli, bowlers power India to big win

Old Trafford, June 28- West Indies, the former champion, have been eliminated from the men's cricket World Cup 2019, after losing to India by 125-runs at Old Trafford, Manchester on Thursday. Excellent batting performance by skipper Virat Kohli and inspired bowling by Mohammed Shami, Jasprit Bumrah and Chahal enabled India to win by a big margin. This is India's biggest win against West Indies in a World Cup. India remain unbeaten and is the only team to have an unbeaten record in this edition of the World Cup so far.

Decent start by India

Winning the toss and electing to bat, India got off to a decent start with openers K.L. Rahul 48 (64b, 6x4) and Rohit Sharma 18(23b, 1x4, 1x6) added 29-runs for the first wicket. Rohit Sharma departed to a debatable DRS decision and India had to depend on skipper Virat Kohli to shore up the Indian innings. Rahul had departed for a well made 48. India also lost Vijay Shankar (14) and Kedar Jadhav (7) quickly and were reduced to 140 for four in 28.5 overs.

Kohli, Dhoni, Hardik Pandya bat well

Kohli was the star of the show for his side with the willow, playing a fluent 72 (82b, 8x4) before planting a tame pull into the hands of short mid-wicket. Kohli and Dhoni 56 n.o (61b, 3x4, 2x6) added 40-runs for the fifth wicket. In an important partnership for the sixth wicket, Dhoni and Pandya 46 (38b, 5x4) added 70 vital runs to enable India to reach a respectable total. Dhoni was his usual self in the end by scoring 16-runs in the last over to boost India's total to 268 for seven in 50 overs.

West Indies batsmen falter

West Indies batsmen floundered in their pursuit of 269, and early scalps from the rampant Indian seamers left Holder's team with a steep uphill climb. Mohammed Shami followed up his magnificent hat-trick against Afghanistan with another vital contribution, dismissing Chris Gayle (6) in the fifth over before following up with the wicket of Shai Hope (5) in the seventh. West Indies were reduced to 16 for two and were struggling against the inspired Indian bowling attack. A 55-run third wicket partnership between Sunil Ambris (31, 40b, 4x2) and Pooran (28) rekindled West Indies hopes but Indian bowlers struck in tandem and reduced West Indies to 101 for 7 in 26.2 overs from which they could not recover. Shimron Hetmyer (18), Jason Holder (6) and Carlos Brathwaite (1) departed early and West Indies middle order succumbed to the guile's of Indian bowlers.

Jasprit Bumrah took two wickets in as many balls to see the end of Carlos Brathwaite and Fabian Allen, and the tail was cleaned up with relative ease as India secured the win by 125 runs. Mohammed Shami was India's most successful bowler taking four for 16. Jasprit Bumrah (two for 9) and Yuzvendra Chahal (two for 39) were the other wicket-takers. West Indies were bowled out for 143 in 34.2 overs.

Virat Kohli was chosen as the Player of the Match. Australia heads the points table (12 points), followed by India (11), New Zealand (11) and England (8). West Indies are in the seventh (3 points from seven games) and are eliminated from this edition of the World Cup.

National Education Policy: Extend date for suggestions, inputs

Mysuru, June 28 (SPN&NNN)- The last day for suggestions and inputs to the Draft National Education Policy (NEP)-2019 is June 30 and this date must be extended, said Education experts Dr. S.N. Gananath, Shivananda Hombala, Brinda Rao, Ashok Rao and a few others.

They were speaking at NEP-2019 interaction jointly organised by Arivu Samskrutika Trust and Mysuru District Journalists Association (MDJA) at Pathrakartara Bhavan here on June 26.

Dr. Gananath said that when National Education Policy is being drafted then the opinions of all the experts in the field must be taken into consideration and only then it must be implemented. And along with this the present D.Ed and B.Ed must be given to all the teachers. Only then will the children be benefited by better education standards.

Realising the importance of early childhood learning programmes, the National Education Policy has stated that by 2025 the improvement of standard of education between 3-6 years must come under Ministry of Education (renaming of Human Resources Development). Hence a clarity is needed on this, he said.

Education expert Ashok Rao said that the NEP has pointed out that it will lay more emphasis for first to fifth standard education and still more emphasis for teaching of mathematics and clarity is required on this issue also. Retaining the salient features and the most important elements, the policy has suggested that the syllabus must be reduced, but this looks like it is due to the influence of western education. However, this should be according to Indian education system and in the background of the geographical boundaries of the country, he pointed out.

Compulsory Hindi is not correct: In the interest of the students' future, three-language formula is good. However, to make it compulsory is not a good idea. Just because a North Indian MP suggests that Hindi must be made compulsory, how appropriate is it on the part of the Central Government to issue a circular. Then the MPs from Karnataka must strongly oppose the imposition of Hindi, he urged.

Brinda Rao said due to the present syllabus there is a lot of pressure on the students. Based on the students' learning capacities the teaching methods have been proposed. Clarity is required on this issue also. Along with this based on the development cycle of the student, the 5+3+3+4 system the new syllabi and curriculum has been proposed. A discussion on this regarding the framing of the syllabi also needs to be done, she added.

In the present D.Ed and B.Ed programmes, it is not easy to produce quality teachers. Instead along with graduate programmes, the teacher training must also be included to improve the quality of teaching, she urged.

Shivananda Hombala said that stress must be laid on students being taught about vocational education at the high school level. The social and human values must also be given importance. The students' interests must be identified and then they should be directed to pursue their interests, he said. In the interaction MDJA President C.K. Mahendra, Dr. M.C. Manohar, Janardhan and others were present.

Mysuru, June 28 (RK&BCT)- The Byadarahalli Police in Bengaluru have arrested a person for allegedly raping a woman in the guise of securing a seat for her child in a school under the Right To Education (RTE) Act. The accused M. Anandkumar hails from Mysuru and is a resident of Byadarahalli D-Group Layout in Bengaluru.

Anandkumar

Anandkumar is a self-styled State President of 'Kannada Siri' organisation and now he has been sent for judicial custody based on the complaint filed by the victim woman. Police said that Anandkumar is a native of Mysuru and used to lead a lavish lifestyle in the name of Kannada Siri organisation and he used to travel across the State collecting money and donations for his organisation in the guise of social service.

At times, he allegedly used blackmailing tactics to arm-twist people to shell out money for his organisation. He was approached by a woman at Byadarahalli as she wanted a school seat for her child through RTE and the woman used to see Anandkumar and his lavish lifestyle. Also, Anandkumar claimed that he is an influential leader who can get works done.

Anandkumar assured the woman that he would get a seat for her child in a reputed school and also assured her that he would pay the child's school fees. On June 16, Anandkumar called the woman to his house and allegedly raped her. Following the rape, the woman lodged a written complaint against Anandkumar.

In her complaint, the aggrieved woman told the Police that Anandkumar had recorded the rape video and had allegedly threatened her to make the video viral if she did not cooperate with him. Byadarahalli Inspector told Star of Mysore that a rape case has been registered against Anandkumar and at present he is in judicial custody.

Sometime back at Metagalli in Mysuru, Anandkumar had blackmailed the owner of an industry following the death of a worker at the industry. He had threatened the industrialist of dire consequences if money was not paid to him following the worker's death.

The industrialist then approached the Metagalli Police and the then Inspector Mahadevappa had booked a case against Anandkumar and had arrested him. A rowdy-sheet was also opened against him. After obtaining bail, Anandkumar left Mysuru and started 'Kannada Siri' in Bengaluru.

Elephant menace unabated in Kodagu

Woman labourer seriously injured in Jumbo attack

Siddapur (Kodagu), June 28 (PS&KS)- A wild elephant has seriously injured a woman labourer working at a coffee estate yesterday evening.

The seriously injured woman, identified as 55-year-old Kamala, has been admitted to a hospital in Ammathi.

Kamala, who was working at the estate of BBTC Company, was returning home after work, when the jumbo attacked her leaving her seriously injured. A herd of four elephants and a calf were said to be roaming inside the coffee estate since morning and one elephant came on to the road and attacked the woman.

The Rapid Response Team (RRT) led by Deputy Range Forest Officer (DRFO) Shivakumar were driving the elephants which had stayed put in other estates during which a few elephants got separated from the herd and had entered Beetekaadu Coffee Estates. The labourers, after seeing the herd at the estates had returned home out of fear.

Labour leaders P.R. Bharath and Mahadev visited the hospital and later took the forest officials to task. They demanded a permanent solution to the menace as the driving operation by the Forest Department was proving futile as the elephants were entering from one estate to another instead of going back to the forest. They warned of staging protest along with labour unions if the Forest Department failed to drive away the elephants back to the forest.

It may be recalled that on Wednesday, a wild tusker had attacked and seriously injured a school boy, who was on his way to the school at Bittangala. The boy is undergoing treatment at a hospital in Mangaluru.

In another incident, a wild elephant attacked two women, who were working in a farm at Ammathi Vontiangadi near Virajpet. The women escaped miraculously and have been admitted to Virajpet General Hospital.

WORD OF THE DAY

Assiduous

Pronunciation: uh-SIJ-uh-wus.
Meaning: Showing great care, attention, and effort : marked by careful unremitting attention or persistent application.
Origin: Judges presiding over assizes (former periodical sessions of the superior courts in English counties) had to be assiduous in assessing how to best address their cases. Not only were their efforts invaluable, but they also serve as a fine demonstration of the etymologies of assiduous, assess, and assize. All three of those words derive from the Latin verb assidēre, which is variously translated as "to sit beside," "to take care of," or "to assist in the office of a judge." Assidēre, in turn, is a composite of the prefix ad- (in this case, meaning "near" or "adjacent to") and sedēre, meaning "to sit."
Example: "In conjunction with his efforts as a painter, Goya was an assiduous draftsman and printmaker. His first efforts at etching include ... royal portraiture and grand subject paintings such as the Feast of Bacchus." — Michael A. Gibson, Jr. and Jessica Brandrup, NBCDFW.com (Dallas-Fort Worth, Texas)

THE ODD WORD

Agastopia

Admiration of a particular part of someone's body.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

A young man's fancy

Meaning: The expression alludes to light thoughts of romantic love.
Origin: It was coined by Alfred Lord Tennyson, in his poem Locksely Hall, 1842:
In the spring a fuller crimson comes upon the robin's breast
In the spring the wanton lapwing gets himself another crest
In the spring a livelier iris changes on the burnished dove
In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love.
The poem concludes with what is one of the best known lines in English poetry. However, it wasn't the whimsical accolade to young love as might be imagined. The protagonist muses on unrequited love in a somewhat bitter mood. Tennyson described the poem as showing "young life, its good side, its deficiencies, and its yearnings".
By the word 'fancy' Tennyson meant 'imagination; a mental image'. To take a fancy to is to be attracted to and imagine (fancy) oneself together with the object of one's affection. This expression was well-known from the 16th century onward. It is first found in the 1541 Acts of Parliament of Henry VIII: In case it fortune... the king... should take a fancie to anie woman.

QUOTE BOX

Deep and simple are far, far more important than shallow and complicated and fancy. —Fred Rogers
